Contents

Note From the Editor 5

Editors' & Authors' Biographies 9-15

Napa's Dark Legacy: Historical Traces of a Nineteenth-Century Public Execution 21
Tobi Shields

The Question of Genocide in Native American Studies: A Historiographical Survey 50
Elizabeth Dukovich

A Historiography of Black Capitalism 63
Carol Francis

"Against All Odds": A Brief Historiography of African American Women in the West in Professional Careers from 1900 - 1940 85
Carey Galbraith

"Take Up the White Man's Burden": A Brief Historiography of Nineteenth-Century Imperialism 98
Christopher Hoganson

Joan Wallach Scott and the "Politics of Knowledge Production" 113
Brittney Smith

Out At Home: How Television and Major League Baseball's Western Expansion Crippled the Pacific Coast 122
David Carpenter

Protecting Our Children: How the Briggs Initiative Propagated the Rhetoric of Family Values in the Gay Rights Debate 137
Kelly Daniells

Internationale Situationniste: Countering American Influence in Post-War France 160
Steve Estabrook

Perfectly Ordinary: Women Strike for Peace in Early 1960s America 178
Janet Rankin

Ethnic Tensions in the Fiji Islands 203
Shameel Singh

America's Evolving Diary: Fluctuating Memory of The Catcher in the Rye 224
Sarah Starke